

POLÍTICAS DO ORDENAMENTO DO TERRITÓRIO

Degree in Public Management

Code: 16510

Main Scientific Area: Public administration and finance

Lecturer: Isabel Maria de Freitas Soares Ferreira

Language of Instruction: Portuguese

Regime: S1

Contact Hours: 45h Total Workload: 81h

ECTS: 4,5

Objectives

It is intended that students understand the concepts of spatial planning, to have a clear understanding of the evolution of planning policies in the European Union and in Portugal, the legal framework of planning policies, the land management system and its relationship with national strategies.

Learning Outcomes

To understand the concepts of spatial planning and the territorial management system, namely: To enable the regular monitoring and evaluation of the functioning of the territorial management system of the territorial management practices; To characterize the exercise of normative and regulatory functions and guidance and technical support to the practice and the agents of territorial transformations; To assimilate the fundamental concepts for the dissemination of good practices and training actions, information and dissemination directed to the empowerment of territorial agents, public and private, and citizens in general; To provide the knowledge to monitor the territorial and urban policies at European levels.

Course Contents

1. Spatial Planning
 - 1.1. Concepts, principles and objectives
 - 1.2. characteristic
 - 1.3. Origin of Spatial Planning
 - 1.4. The relationship between Urban and Regional Planning
2. Evolution of Policy Planning
 - 2.1. In the European Union
 - 2.2. in Portugal
3. Legal Framework of Policy Planning
 - 3.1. European Charter for Spatial Planning

- 3.2. Constitution of the Portuguese Republic
- 3.3. Law on Spatial Planning Policy and Urban Planning - Law n^o 48/98 of 11 August
- 3.4. The Legal Instruments of Land Management - Decree-Law No. 380/99 of 22 September
- 4. Instruments of Land Management
 - 4.1. PNPOP
 - 4.2. ESDP and psot
 - 4.3. PROT
 - 4.4. PMOT
- 5. Spatial Planning and Citizen Participation
- 6. Spatial Planning and National Development Strategies
- 7. Challenges for Spatial Planning

Recommended Bibliography

ALVES, Rui (2001) Planeamento e Ordenamento do Território e o Estado Português – Contributos para uma intervenção renovada, IST.

Comissão das Comunidades Europeias (1991), Europa 2000: Perspectivas para o Desenvolvimento do Território da Comunidade Serviço das Publicações Oficiais das Comunidades Europeias.

Comissão das Comunidades Europeias (1995), Europa 2000+: Cooperação para o Ordenamento do Território Europeu, Serviço das Publicações Oficiais das Comunidades Europeias.

FERRÃO, João (2009), Ordenamento do Território: 25 Anos de Aprendizagem, Europa. Novas Fronteiras, Lisboa, N.º 26/27, 2010, pp. 77-84

Learning and Teaching Methods

The content inherent in each of the different points of the program of the course goes to meet the objectives, whose implementation is aligned with the teaching-learning methodologies

Assessment Methods

PRESENTIAL REGIME:

Continuous assessment:

- a) Individual test - 60%

b) Group work with presentation - 30%

c) Class participation - 10%

Note: Passing the course requires a minimum mark of 8 in the test.

Exam:

Individual test - 70%

Group work - 30%

Special exam:

Individual test - 100%

+++++

DISTANCE LEARNING REGIME:

Continuous assessment:

a) Individual test - 70%

b) Group work with presentation and defence - 30%

Note: Passing the course requires a minimum mark of 8 in the test.

Exam:

Individual test - 80%

Group work - 20%

Special exam:

Individual test - 100%